

Faith Forward Services

with Kimberly Reese

A Faith Liberation Initiative

Kimberly Reese, MSW, LCSW

Whether through consultation, speaking, or training, I help bridge the gap between spiritual leadership and emotional well-being—so congregations can become communities of care.

WHY THIS WORK MATTERS:

The Black church has always been a place of resilience and refuge. My work honors that sacred legacy—supporting ministries as they evolve into spaces where faith, healing, and accountability walk hand in hand.

FAITH LIBERATION CONSULTING

Healing-Centered. Liberation-Minded. Holy Spirit-Lead.

Faith Forward Services is a faith liberation initiative offering consulting, training, and speaking for churches and worship spaces committed to healing, sustainability, and justice-centered care.

Through Faith Liberation Consulting, I partner with ministries seeking to build mental health ministries, care for congregants in meaningful ways, and move toward becoming healing-centered, emotionally safe communities. Whether through strategic planning, leadership coaching, or educational workshops, my work helps churches bridge the gap between spiritual leadership and emotional well-being.
